

Fight for pay, secure contracts, equality and free education for all

Saturday
26 January,
11am-4pm

Registration: 10.30am

Westminster
Kingsway College,
211 Grays Inn Rd,
London WC1X 8RA

☉ Kings Cross / Russell Square

This year's UCU Left conference takes place in a unique context.

The government is in crisis over Brexit. Their only answer is to deflect blame and to continue scapegoating migrants and refugees.

We are also seeing political polarisation across Europe – from the growth of the far right to the inspiring “Yellow Vests” movement against austerity in France.

For UCU members 2018 was a tumultuous year, with the USS dispute and an explosion of debate about who really runs our union.

We are now in the midst of another round of disputes, this time over pay in both sectors. In HE the pay ballot begins on 14 January. In FE we've seen a significant breakthrough on pay at one major college and 16 more branches are set to strike.

The UCU Left conference will debate all these issues, and, with union elections starting within weeks, build for a campaign to win a new fighting leadership for the union.

Travel costs: we will have a subsidised 'pooled fare' to help with transport costs.

11am ..... Opening session:
the fight for pay, secure contracts, equality and free education for all

12pm ..... Skype with speakers from France

12.30pm .... Lunchbreak

1.30pm ..... Industrial action strategy and tactics

2.30pm ..... USS/TPS round two:
The battle to defend our pensions

3-4pm ..... AGM

Fight for pay, secure contracts, equality and free education for all

Saturday
26 January,
11am-4pm

Registration: 10.30am

Westminster
Kingsway College,
211 Grays Inn Rd,
London WC1X 8RA

☉ Kings Cross / Russell Square

This year's UCU Left conference takes place in a unique context.

The government is in crisis over Brexit. Their only answer is to deflect blame and to continue scapegoating migrants and refugees.

We are also seeing political polarisation across Europe – from the growth of the far right to the inspiring “Yellow Vests” movement against austerity in France.

For UCU members 2018 was a tumultuous year, with the USS dispute and an explosion of debate about who really runs our union.

We are now in the midst of another round of disputes, this time over pay in both sectors. In HE the pay ballot begins on 14 January. In FE we've seen a significant breakthrough on pay at one major college and 16 more branches are set to strike.

The UCU Left conference will debate all these issues, and, with union elections starting within weeks, build for a campaign to win a new fighting leadership for the union.

Travel costs: we will have a subsidised 'pooled fare' to help with transport costs.

11am ..... Opening session:
the fight for pay, secure contracts, equality and free education for all

12pm ..... Skype with speakers from France

12.30pm .... Lunchbreak

1.30pm ..... Industrial action strategy and tactics

2.30pm ..... USS/TPS round two:
The battle to defend our pensions

3-4pm ..... AGM