

UCU NEC elections: Vote Jenny Sutton

for UK-elected members (Further Education)

Defend education – For a campaigning union

I have been teaching at the College of North East London since 1993, first as an HPL and from 1996 as a permanent lecturer. I have been branch secretary at CONEL since 2008 and Chair of London Region UCU (FE) for 2 years. I am in UCU Left.

I want to contribute to the development of our union as a campaigning organisation that connects the fight for jobs, pay and employment rights with the fight for inclusive, free, progressive, high-quality education for all.

Equal

I have led our branch in tough and successful battles against compulsory redundancies, for equal treatment for HPLs, for implementation of the 8 point pay scale, against punitive observation regimes and against cuts in education.

As chair of London Region, I have worked for collaboration between colleges across the capital against increasingly aggressive managements.

If you elect me I intend to:

- Listen to, and be accountable to, members on the ground through regular written reports and attendance at regional meetings and activities
- Reach out to support and help build weaker branches

- Foster greater collaboration between branches through existing regional structures

- Encourage the active participation of women and hourly-paid staff in the union

- Work to secure equal rights for hourly-paid staff

- Work to reclaim further education from the bean-counters in control who know the price of everything and the value of nothing.

Elections run from 6 February to 1 March

In the UK-elected members (FE) election please vote:

Richard McEwan 1

Umit Yildiz 2

Jenny Sutton 3

Steve Boyce 4

I also urge you to vote for Mark Campbell for General Secretary and Angie McConnell for Vice-President (FE)

We recommend a vote for these UCU Left candidates in the elections
